Rookie Coach of the Year

A massive congratulations to Coach Tyler on being named Tennis Coaches Australia's Rookie of the Year—recognising the top young coach under 25!

This well-deserved honour reflects Tyler's unwavering dedication to his students, the Beaconsfield Tennis Club, and Ossi's Tennis Coaching over the past five years. His passion, professionalism, and tireless work ethic have not only shaped the growth of countless players but also earned the admiration of his peers across the coaching community.

We're incredibly proud of Tyler and grateful for the energy and excellence he brings to the court every day.

Welcome Coach Vivek

We're excited to officially welcome Coach Vivek to the Beaconsfield Tennis Club community. Having joined Ossie's Tennis Coaching a few weeks ago, he's already made a great impression—recently hitting the court with Lily and Brian.

As Coach Karan's close mate and regular doubles partner, Vivek brings strong camaraderie and coaching experience to our team. He's a fantastic addition to the club! Let's all help make him feel at home at our wonderful club!

A huge thank you to Paul from Ossie's Tennis Coaching for expertly managing the event, and to Louise Stirling, Bron McCormick, and junior volunteer Michaela Whyllie for running a fantastic BBQ together. Your teamwork and energy were the heart of the day! A special shout-out as well to all the volunteers who helped with the cleanup—your support kept everything running smoothly and left the club looking its best. Trophies will be presented at the end of year celebrations.

Ball Kid Leader

After successfully serving as one of the ball kids at this year's Australian Open, one of our junior members, Kai McQualter, has been chosen from thousands of applicants nationwide to be one of the Ball Kid Leaders at the 2026 Australian Open.

Additionally, Kai was selected to launch Australian Open Live, a remarkable achievement that showcases their exceptional leadership and dedication. The Beaconsfield Tennis Club extends its heartfelt congratulations.

Talented Year 9 student Kai McQualter has been selected from thousands of applicants to take on the role as one of the Leaders of the Ball Kids at the 2026 Australian Open. In addition to this prestigious position, Kai was also asked to launch Australian Open Live, a fantastic recognition of his leadership skills.

Monday Night Advanced Hitters Finals

Congratulations to our Monday night grand finalists. Winners are the Earthquakes .Hurricanes: Herman & James, Earthquakes: Joseph, Ethan, Tumay

Junior Tennis Tips

Here's a few reminders to help make the game enjoyable for everyone:

1. Please put drink bottles, tennis bags, and any clothes you take off at the net post, preferably on the fence side.
2. Put the second ball in a pocket, not at your feet.
3. Return balls to the other end of the court with courtesy - don't "whack" them.
4. Be respectful.
5. Servers are to call the point score before each first serve.
